FREE OUTDOOR CINEMA AT CIVIC PARK SATURDAY EVENING

Real Film Festival invites the community to Civic Park on Saturday evening to enjoy some fantastic summer cinema!

The free event will commence at 7pm on Saturday, November 8 at Civic Park, Newcastle and includes a short and feature film screening.

The evening kicks off with the Australian Premiere screening of short film Being 8 Directed by Jason van Genderen. The film looks at this specific time of discovery in a little boy's life.

The feature film One Chance is based on the true story of Paul Potts, a shy, bullied shop assistant by day and an amateur opera singer by night who became a phenomenon after being chosen for, and ultimately winning Britain's Got Talent 2007. One Chance was produced by Simon Cowell, Harvey Winstein and Kris Thykie, and directed by David Frankel.

Festival Director Annette Hubber said, "Bring your picnic rugs and come and join us for what will be a wonderful evening of films."

Charity Partner Hunter Medical Research Institute (HMRI) will be taking gold coin donations on the night to go towards much needed medical research in the Hunter.
